

Statut přijatý na 1. (ustavujícím) mezinárodním kongresu AAI v roce 1991 v Budapešti.

1/1/91

AIESEC ALUMNI INTERNATIONAL

Statutes

Article 1 - Name

- 1.1 The international association is called :
" AIESEC ALUMNI INTERNATIONAL " (A.A.I.) and will further be referred to as " The Association ".
- 1.2 The Association is ruled by the Belgian Law of October 25 1919, modified by the Law of December 6 1954.

Article 2 - Registered Office

- 2.1 The registered office is at Tervuren Avenue 100, 1040 Brussels, Belgium.
- 2.2 It can be moved to any other place in Belgium by decision of the Executive Board, after publication in the Annexes du Moniteur Belge.

Article 3 - Purpose

- 3.1 The principal objective of The Association is to contribute to international understanding and to help its members' personal development.
The Association links its members above and beyond culture, race, sex, citizenship, religion, economic systems and branches, hierarchy and generation.
- 3.2 The Association is international, non political, independent and non profit oriented.
- 3.3 The philosophy of the Association is based on the same principles as those of AIESEC (Association Internationale des Etudiants en Sciences Economiques et Commerciales).
The Association has inherent purposes different from those of AIESEC.
- 3.4 Since The Association is based on non-mercantile relationships, its activities are based on a capital of trust and on personal understanding. Through this unique capital, the objectives of The Association and each individual member are achieved.
- 3.5 Hence, the members of The Association commit themselves to :
 - create opportunities for continuous, close and friendly relations amongst members;
 - assist members in developing their professional skills;
 - broaden their cultural horizons;
 - maintain a co-operative relationship with AIESEC.

1/1/91

Article 4 - Membership

4.1 Conditions of admission.

Membership of the Association is on an individual basis.
Those eligible for membership are :

Former active AIESEC members

- 4.1.1 who have held a meaningful position in AIESEC,
- 4.1.2 who have sent in the application form,
- 4.1.3 who have paid their annual membership fee.

4.2 Rights

- 4.2.1 The members receive all informations concerning The Association and can participate in all events and activities.
- 4.2.2 The members are eligible for Executive Board functions.
- 4.2.3 The members can sit in Congress and have voting rights.

4.3 Retiring, exclusion and suspension

- 4.3.1 Each member can withdraw any time from The Association. It will be notified in writing to the Executive Board.
- 4.3.2 Every member who refuses or omits to pay the annual membership fee, will be considered as "outgoing", unless on special circumstances decided by the Executive Board.
- 4.3.3 Any member who refuses to conform to the statutes, to conform to the decisions of the Executive Board acting within the bounds of its mandate or to the decisions of the Congress, or whose conduct would be considered detrimental to the interests of The Association, can be excluded by a simple majority Executive Board decision.
This exclusion by the Executive Board will be ratified by the Congress.
The member concerned will be able to appeal against the decision of the Executive Board at the Congress.
- 4.3.4 A membership can be suspended by a simple majority Executive Board decision, while waiting for confirmation of the exclusion by the Congress.
- 4.3.5 Outgoing or excluded members cannot claim a refund of the annual membership fee.

1/1/91

Article 5 - Congress

- 5.1 The Congress is composed of all the members.
- 5.2 Congress convenes at least every two years. Convocations are sent out by the President of the Executive Board, one month before the Congress and contains the agenda of the Congress.
- 5.3 An extraordinary Congress can be called by one third of the members. The convocation is sent to all members by the initiators or by the President of the Executive Board one month before the Congress and it contains the agenda.
- 5.4 Every member present at Congress will have one vote.
- 5.5 Decisions at Congress will be taken by simple majority.
- 5.6 The Congress has total authority for the fulfilment of the Associations' objectives. It can :
 - 5.6.1 elect and revoke the members of the Executive Board;
 - 5.6.2 determine the annual membership fee;
 - 5.6.3 approve the accounts as well as the budget for the period till next Congress;
 - 5.6.4 modify the statutes and dissolve The Association;
 - 5.6.5 approve the report of the Executive Board;
 - 5.6.6 receive and approve reports on execution of projects;
 - 5.6.7 consider and assign responsibility for projects and activities of The Association.
 - 5.6.8 The quorum is composed of members present during the Congress.

1/1/91

Article 6 - The Executive Board

- 6.1 The Association is administered by an Executive Board.
It will be composed of six duly elected members from
The Association's membership.
These six members will represent at least three nationalities,
of which none may form a majority.
At least one member will be of Belgian nationality.
The President of AIESEC INTERNATIONAL and the President of the Congress Organising Committee will be ex-officio and non-voting members of the Executive Board.
- 6.2 Members of the Executive Board are elected for a term of two years, their term of office expires at the next Congress following their election.
They are eligible for re-election.
- 6.3 In case of a permanent vacancy occurring, the Executive Board will co-opt another member to fill the vacancy.
- 6.4 The members of the Executive Board will agree between themselves on the attribution of the functions assigned to the Executive Board.
They will propose for endorsement by the Congress one of their members to serve as President of The Association.
- 6.5 The Executive Board meets at least twice a year. It can meet more often if necessary, at request of the President of the Executive Board.
- 6.6 The task of the Executive Board is :
 - 6.6.1 to coordinate the activities of The Association;
 - 6.6.2 to attend to all administrative matters;
 - 6.6.3 to prepare the organisation and the agenda of next Congress.
- 6.7 A quorum of the Executive Board consists of the majority of its members. The decisions of the Executive Board are taken by simple majority.
- 6.8 The Executive Board uses the competence accorded to them by the Congress, for the execution of the decisions and legislation passed at Congress.
- 6.9 All acts binding The Association are to be signed by two members of the Executive Board, who do not need to justify their powers to a third party.
- 6.10 All court actions, in appeal and in defence, are followed up by the Executive Board which is represented by the President or any other member of the Executive Board designated by him for this task.

1/1/91

Article 7 - Budgets and Accounts

- 7.1 The fiscal year runs from January 1st till December 31st every year.
- 7.2 The treasurer of The Association is responsible for the preparation of an audited financial report of The Association by March 31st of every year.
- 7.3 The auditing of the accounts is taken care of by two auditors elected at Congress. Their mandate runs for two years and they are eligible for re-election.

Article 8 - Amendements

- 8.1 Without prejudice to Article 5 of the Law of October 25 1919, all proposals of amendements to the Statutes or of the dissolving of The Association, must be proposed by the Executive Board or by at least half of the members of The Association.
- 8.2 The Executive Board must inform all members of The Association of above proposals of amendements at least one month before the Congress which will legislate on the issue.
- 8.3 No decision will be taken, unless voted by a two-third majority of members present at the Congress.
- 8.4 The amendements to the statutes will only be effective after approval by Royal Decree and after the conditions for publication as required by the Article 3 of the Law of October 25 1919, have been fulfilled.
- 8.5 The Congress will decide the mode of dissolving and liquidation of The Association.

Article 9 - General Regulations

Any other matters, such as the publications in the Annexes du Moniteur Belge, not foreseen in these Statutes, will be regulated in conformity to the Law of October 25 1919, modified by the Law of December 6 1954.