VZPOMÍNKA (6)

Frederickburg, Texas, USA

založeno 1846 Johnem O. Musenbachem (1812 - 1897), přezdívané též jako Fritztown, pojmenováno po princi Fridrichovi Pruském

Město leží 70 mil od San Antonia a 80 mil od Austinu.

Domov německé menšiny hovořící do dneška texaskou němčinou. Místo, které proslulo "německým dědictvím" a"texaskou pohostinností".

Rodiště admirála Chestera Nimitze (1885 - 1966), několik let prohlášeno za texaské historické místo.

Sídlo Národního muzea války v Tichomoří.

Oblast je spjata s 36. prezidentem USA (1963- 1969) Lyndonem Bainesem Johnsonem, který se narodil v blízkém Stonewallu a u Frederickburgu měl velkou usedlost, kde dožila jeho manželka.

Místo je též známé jako cíl zájemců o agroturistiku (pěstitelské místo broskví, levandule a dalších plodin).

V okolí zajímavá příroda (Očarovaná skála, Vyvážená skála, Křížová hora).

FREDERICKSBURG
in the Texas Hill Country!
Willkommen!
You're invited to treat yourself to the historic charm of Fredericksburg. For over a century, local artisans, winemakers, craftsmen and shop owners have been mixing German heritage with Texan hospitality to create the kind of place you'll want to indulge in - again and again.
Restaurant
AUTHENTIC GERMAN CUISINE
Main Street, 1910
A colorful and cultural blend of architecture, cuisine, art, music and friendly people. Anytime of the year.
The Maibaum or Maypole symbolizes the history of Fredericksburg.
German heritage.
Texan hospitality.

Hauptstrasse and Beyond
Find out why Fredericksburg is a shopper's dream. And prepare to be enchanted as you rediscover that spirited child within yourself. Here, you'll find treasures from 18th century toys and hand-made crafts to antique furniture and dulciners. Be sure to try one of our day spas. It's a perfectly relaxing way to end the day.
5-10-25¢ STORE
Area General Store circa 1922
Browse among an endless variety of one-of-a-kind stores and boutiques.
Get caught up in the Old World charm as you stroll our byways.
Some orchards allow visitors to pick their own fruit.
Wein...
Aged to Perfection
Early German settlers planted a vineyard on an ancient stand of native mustang grapes, crafting a fruitful economy. Here, wines are aged the old fashioned way, in oak barrels or stainless steel tanks. From Chardonnays and Merlots, to Sauvignons and Blancs. Oh, be sure to visit the tasting rooms on Main Street and the huge copper vats at the largest brew pub in the area.
Winemakers toast the fruits of their labor.
Many wineries are located on the outskirts of town, including the largest underground cellar in Texas.

The past lingers in der Altstadt

While you're taking in the area sights and the antique shops, be sure to explore der Altstadt (the old town or historic district), the museums and the galleries to look into the heart of Fredericksburg's history, people and culture. You'll learn that John O. Meusebach laid the groundwork for the town's economic and agricultural success.

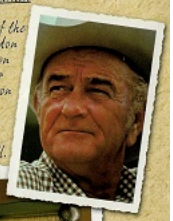

Vereins Kirche Museum – replica of 1847 landmark, the "Coffee Mill Church" features a rotating photo display.

LBJ National Historical Park – spend time exploring the life of the 36th president, Lyndon Baines Johnson. The national visitor center, his Boyhood Home and Johnson Settlement are located in Johnson City. The birthplace, family cemetery and "The Texas White House" can be found on the LBJ Ranch near Stonewall.

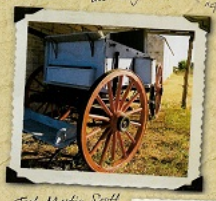

Luckenbach, Texas – chill out at the famous 4th of July picnic or kickin' up your heels at the honky-tonk.

National Museum of the Pacific War – honoring hometown hero Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and those who served in WWII, the George Bush Gallery offers a walk through the Pacific war.

Pioneer Museum Complex – perfectly preserved 1849 stone Rawhide Haus and store, one-room schoolhouse, and other historical buildings.

Fort Martin Scott Historic Site – (1848) first U.S. Army fort in Texas, a center of LBJ State Historical Park – Catch the LBJ Ranch tram at the visitor center and discover restored cabins, an outdoor theater, swimming pool, and nature trails. Experience

Gish's Old West Museum – see