

GUTHRIE, OKLAHOMA

The National Four - String Banjo Hall of Fame Museum

Národní Sín slávy a Muzeum čtyřstrunného bendža

Guthrie

historické město s viktoriánskými domy (2000)

Založil právník John Guthrie

1ááí

zastávka stanice Deer Creek (South Kansas Railway)

1907

První státní hlavní město Oklahomy (od roku 1910 Oklahoma City)

Do roku 1988 ve městě Muzeum čtyřstrunného bendža (poté přemístěno do Oklahoma City)

A large, ornate, circular object, possibly a ceremonial drum or a large bowl, featuring intricate carvings and a central emblem. The object is dark in color with a lighter, possibly gold or silver, border and a central decorative panel. It is mounted on a stand with four legs.

Celebrate America's Musical Heritage

Guthrie, Oklahoma

THE NATIONAL FOUR-STRING
BANJO
HALL OF FAME
MUSEUM

This exciting museum houses the finest publicly displayed collection of four-string banjos in the world. The Museum features:

- ☐ TOURS
- ☐ EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS
- ☐ GREAT BANJO RECORDINGS
- ☐ LECTURE & PERFORMANCE HALL
- ☐ DISPLAYS OF FAMOUS BANJOISTS
- ☐ GIFT SHOP

Discover America's only native instrument, the banjo, at the only museum in America dedicated to preserving the heritage of its musical importance.

116 East Oklahoma
Guthrie, OK 73044

405 260-1323