WELCOME

Welcome to Cedar Rapids!

We are delighted that you have chosen to visit our community whose greatest asset is its people! As the second largest metropolitan area in Iowa, we provide a wide range of diverse activities for all visitors who are here for business or pleasure. Our rich cultural offerings include ethnic festivals, art and history museums, theatre, authentically preserved or re-created villages from the past, and one of the oldest and most prestigious symphony orchestras west of the Mississippi.

This Visitors Guide and Membership Directory is especially designed to provide for you information about the best that we have to offer. Whether you're planning to spend a few hours, days or weeks, you will find that the businesses in our community offer high quality products and services in a competitive and customer-oriented fashion.

Here in Cedar Rapids, we know the importance of enjoying the traditional four seasons as well as the fifth season, which we call "a time to enjoy life." Thank you for visiting the City of Five Seasons. We are confident you will enjoy your stay with us.

Cordially,
